V. COMMISSIONER REPORTS

Bennett 4th District: Pajaro Valley Sports Foundation had a positive breakthrough with Freedom Schools. I want to send a shout out to Oscar and his team – my kids are on the team and they do a great job with the La Selva Afterschool program.

Minott 2nd District: Sadly, we lost Ed Manning recently. He has done a lot for County Parks and we think of him with great fondness. Big thanks to his family for everything they have done. He will be greatly missed.

Duncan-Merrell 3rd District: The Clam Chowder Cook Off will be held Sat & Sun, Feb 22 & 23. Two day event, rain or shine. Tasting kits are $10 each - tasting kit sales benefit Santa Cruz City Parks & Recreation.

Rapoza 5th District: We have a big event coming up in the 5th District, on Feb 22nd – the Felton Library grand opening. Speeches start at 9 o'clock and at 10 people can check out the library. The park won't be open yet, but it is coming along!

Roberts 1st District: There has been incredible collaboration between the Cradle to Career initiative and the school district. Current leadership is defining what is important for the children and the number one thing they said was access to parks and recreation. It is so exciting that families and healthcare groups are identifying parks as an important part of people's lives.

VI. DIRECTOR'S REPORT

- I want to acknowledge our speakers earlier. We are far behind in natural resource management and we are challenged with the resources we have. I have been aware of this since starting in the Department and I'm working hard to get us more resources to protect what we have. We are hiring a Park Planner who has a strong natural resources background.
- Superintendent Hurley and I have been in conversation with Bill Cummings, the husband of Anna Jean Cummings. We were very much trying to honor the idea behind AJC. He seemed very cognizant of his wife's desires for the park and felt that they were being honored by the County Parks Dept. The AmeriCorp Team is doing restoration work at AJC and I think a volunteer trail crew would be most effective in managing the trails there since it has worked so well at Quail Hollow.
- It's a new year. The LEO's Haven grand opening was a wonderful event.
- We have another opening coming up this Saturday, Feb 8th from 1-3pm – opening the skate feature at Seacliff Village Park. County Parks Friends is helping to get a fundraiser for the next phase. Felton Discovery Park is right behind the library opening. We are planning an official opening in May.
- We are hoping to start construction on the Heart of Soquel and The Farm park.
- Continuing discussions with Supervisor Coonerty about increasing access to programs for Medi-Cal qualifying youth, this is to build on the Park Rx program that is already out there.
- Segments of the Rail Trail are being built some of them on County land and County Parks will be responsible for maintaining those segments. We are hoping to recoup some funding for maintenance.
- Superintendent Sturm has been working on our department emergency response plan. It will be the first plan the department has had. If there was a disaster or emergency, staff will have an idea of how to respond.
- We are working with a muralist to paint the bathroom at Seacliff Village Park, that is going to the Board for approval on Feb 25th.
- I was on Good Morning Monterey Bay, the last time I was on the show we were starting the department Strategic Plan – it was great to be able to hand Rosie the finished product.
- Regarding Scott Creek, I did communicate with the deputy director of Fish & Wildlife, Alex Pitts. We had a long conversation about the biological opinion and its connection to construction projects. I'm going to have another conversation with our attorney. It's all quite convoluted, but I am following up and trying to get it straightened out.
- The County is doing a Long Range Facilities Plan to make better use of County facilities and identify the needs for deferred maintenance, this will affect County Parks so we are trying to be involved as much as possible.

VII. REGULAR AGENDA – Information Items

- a. Youth Resource Bank Annual Cabaret was announced
- b. Rebecca Hurley presented on the Parks PRIMO! project
- c. The Commission reviewed Communication Strategies developed from previous workshop
- d. Jeff Gaffney reviewed Roberts Rules of Order

VIII. REGULAR AGENDA – Action Items (none)

Subject: Volunteer Program Report

The AmeriCorps Gold 7 Team were scheduled to be here through April 10th but due to the Covid-19 situation they had to leave prematurely on March 20th. They all made it home healthy and safe. They were sad to go and are hoping once they are able to gather they will finish their commitment as a team to the AmeriCorps program.

During their time here they accomplished and experienced so much! Some of their accomplishments are outlined below.

Pinto Lake County Park:

During their days at Pinto the team split up and half the team focused on removing invasive ivy in an overgrown area down by the lake and the other half the team focused in and around the house.

Inside the house they prepped and painted many of the rooms and outside did landscaping, clearing of downed trees and weed eating.

Bert Scott Estate:

The Bert Scott Estate received a major clean up from the team. They spent over a week around the property weed eating, pruning, power washing, raking, cleaning, painting, removing fallen trees, fences and arbors and they built a new fence.

Merk Rd.:

While in South County some of the team built a new split rail fence along a County property line. The team had learned the technique from the Volunteer Trail Crew up at Quail Hollow.

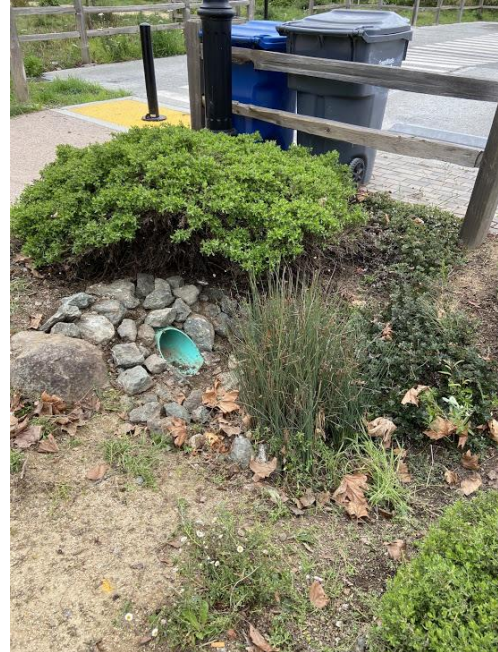

Hidden Beach Park:

The team removed invasive ivy and did some pruning to spruce up the park.

Heart of Soquel:

The team did weed eating for fire abatement, cleared drains, pruned Yarrow and pulled weeds to help keep the park beautiful.

Anna Jean Cummings Park:

The team focused on French Broom removal and trail clean up.

Highlands Park:

The team spent quite a bit of time at Highlands removing invasive plants from in and around the Nature Trail. They spread tons of chip around the park and playground area. They also engaged with a group of volunteers from the Boulder Creek YMCA and taught them the importance of native habitat restoration and how to remove invasive plants.

Ben Lomond Senior Center:

The team removed invasive plants from around the parking lot, prepared the front garden beds with drip irrigation for a Native Plant Pollinator Garden and did general clean up around the grounds.

Quail Hollow Ranch:

One day a week 3 team members rotated to work with our Volunteer Trail Crew. The Volunteer Trail Crew taught the team how to build a split rail fence that was needed on the Discovery Trail. The team also learned various trail building and maintenance skills from our talented and dedicated Volunteer Trail Crew.

They also repaired, replaced, and painted fences around the grounds.

Ben Lomond Park:

One of the projects at this park was to improve on a restoration project that was started by last year's team. The restoration project is a Native Plant Pollinator Garden and the team improved the garden by weeding and chipping. In the rest of the park they removed lots of invasive plants, pruned and did some major chipping.

Scott Creek Beach:

Team members worked up at Scott Creek twice removing ice plant.

Other projects and activities:

Team members worked with Program Specialist, Dan Lazarus on a science curriculum about Butterfly Pollinator Gardens.

The team also spent time at the Boulder Creek Library, Boulder Creek Community Center and the riparian area behind Mill St. in Ben Lomond, monitoring for invasive plants in areas which had been restored by previous teams.

The Team helped with food distribution at the Second Harvest Food Bank in Felton.

They worked alongside members of the Downtown Street Team on the San Lorenzo Estuary Re-vegetation Restoration Project.

They engaged in volunteer events with Shared Adventures, Homeless Garden Project, Food Not Bombs, Pacific Cultural Center, Henry Cowell, and the UCSC Arboretum.

Quail Hollow Ranch

Our volunteers that open the visitor center, greet park visitors, and conduct classes and presentations for the public have been sheltering at home, but once they get the approval and feel safe they will be back to volunteering in full force.

The Volunteer Trail Crew have recently returned and are applying the Social Distancing guidelines while they volunteer.

Friends of Quail Hollow (FQH) have teamed up with County staff and a landscape architect to completely redesign the front garden area at Quail Hollow Ranch. The process started about a year ago. FQH approached a landscape architect, and she was quick to waive her fee and get to work. The architect met with Quail Hollow's Program Specialist, Dan Lazarus and developed an amazing and comprehensive plan for the area. County maintenance staff gave input and approved the final plan. Recently maintenance staff completed their part of plan of installing drip irrigation and the hardscape. Next, FQH will purchase the plants and volunteers will install them.

Friends of Quail Hollow also funded a large portion of the split rail fence on the Discovery Loop.

New hardscape design.

The Nest Box Program started on March 1st. They are continuing to record activity but have changed their procedures to adopt to the Social Distancing guidelines.

Pinto Lake County Park

Thanks to Dave Suno and Santos Gomez, two dedicated volunteers at Pinto Lake County Park, the Disc Golf volunteers have been increasing. The volunteers stopped for some time due to Covid but are now back in the park and following social distancing guidelines. The volunteers also designed some signs to help keep players safe.

Junior Recreation Volunteers

Junior volunteers were helping to support staff in our afterschool programs and now are waiting for approval to get back to volunteering for the upcoming summer programs.

Volunteers

Volunteer, Jay Todd stopped his litter patrol in our parking lots and beach access trails along the North Coast, but is ready to get back to it once it is safe.

Volunteer, David Kwan is staying at home for now but misses his volunteer work in the office.
